

David Stanley

Maxwell A. Miller

Susan Strang

Scott W. Parson

ED TERRIS has joined Power Innovations as vice president of operations. Most recently, Terris served as director of MASS at Mountain View Marketing. He brings with him more than 20 years of electronic industry management experience, which will aid him in providing power and backup for critical applications among customers in the oil exploration, flight simulation and homeland security markets.

MAXWELL A. MILLER, who practices local, state and federal taxation at Parsons Behle & Latimer, is the new chairman of the Utah Taxpayers Association board of directors. He was elected to serve a one-year term. His practice also includes administrative law, constitutional law and government affairs.

Meridian GIS has promoted SHAYNE SCOTT to president and hired ERIC LUNDQUIST to be director of graphics. The company is a subsidiary of Kemp Griffin, Inc., which has promoted SUSAN STRANG to executive vice president.

Bonneville International has named RUSSELL BANZ as vice president of new media for the company. Banz has served in numerous capacities for the company, most recently as director of new initiatives.

JOSEPH A. CANNON, who has been a member of the Deseret Morning News board of directors since 1996, became editor of the newspaper effective Jan. 1. He succeeded John Hughes, who was editor since 1997.

IKEA has appointed PAUL JANZEN as store manager for its new Draper location, which is scheduled to open this spring.

CRS Consulting Engineers has opened a new branch office in Farmington headed by MATT HIRST, director of transportation and GIS for the firm.

LERRON LITTLE of Capstone Real Estate in Provo has assumed the office of president for the Utah County Association of Realtors. KENNY PARCELL of Re/Max Results Spanish Fork is president elect and KELLY ERCANBRACK of Coldwell Banker Orem is the first vice president.

BECKY KAPP has been named the new administrator of Intermountain Healthcare's Alta View Hospital in Sandy. She replaces Tim Bricker, who accepted a position with a health care system in Oregon. Previously, Kapp served as an operating officer for Intermountain's Alta View, Cottonwood, TOSH and LDS hospitals.

As part of a recent reorganization, Nu Skin Enterprises has appointed JIM FRARY as vice president of IT business integration, GARY GARRETT as vice president of corporate affairs, BART MANGUM as vice president of plan/control systems and MARK WOLFERT as chief compliance officer.

JAMES FERGUSON, a clinical professor of psychiatry at the University of Utah School of Medicine and founder and president of Pharmacology Research Co. and Pharmacology Data Management Co., both of which were sold to larger companies, has been selected as president of Cognitive Drug Research North America.

CURT ROBERTS, a vice president for Nike and an alumnus of Weber State University, has been selected to serve as vice provost for Innovation & Economic Development at the university. In this role he will direct a new technology innovation center on campus that will support the Utah Science, Technology and Research (USTAR) economic development initiative. Roberts has been a vice president at Nike since 1999. He has served as a member of WSU's National Advisory Council since 2000.

Sonic Innovations has hired RICHARD V. SCOTT as vice president of worldwide marketing. Previously, he held a similar position with Advanced Medical Optics, a spin-off company from Allergan Inc. He also has held a number of marketing positions with Alcon Laboratories.

Promontory Club has named veteran executive RAYMOND T. GRANT as its new director of club operations. Prior to joining Promontory, Grant was the executive director of Sundance Resort and helped increase occupancy and annual sales. Previously, he served as managing director of arts and culture with the Salt Lake Organizing Committee for the 2002 Olympic Winter Games, and he was the artistic director of the 2002 Cultural Olympiad, the Olympic Festival for the 2002 Games.

SCOTT W. PARSON became president and CEO of Staker & Parson Companies effective Jan. 1. He has worked in the business founded by his grandfather, Jack B. Parson, for more than 20 years, most recently leading Jack B. Parson Companies, Utah's largest ready-mixed concrete supplier.

DAVID STANLEY has been appointed as the director of Utah's Division of Occupational and Professional Licensing (DOPL). Previous to his appointment, he was DOPL's assistant director of construction services, and his professional background includes positions as director of Salt Lake County Public Works, vice president of Western Utility Contractors, vice president of Westroc and various management roles with Gibbons and Reed Co.

LANCE REESE has joined Reddwerks as part of its new U.S.-based sales organization. His new position is regional vice president of sales for the West and Southwest. For the past six years, he was with FKI Logistex, where his last position was director of technical sales.

RON HEINZ, managing director of Canopy Ventures, was named the Utah Entrepreneur of the Year by the Utah Valley Entrepreneur Forum. As managing director, Heinz oversees corporate investments and strategic direction for Canopy Ventures. Previously, he was CEO of Heliuss, Inc., a Canopy portfolio company.

Three new members have been appointed to the Westminster's Board of Trustees: WILLIAM NELSON, president of Intermountain Health Care, MICHAEL BILLS, president of Feature Films for Families, and JOE REYNA, regional president of Zions Bank. Comprised of 32 members, the board determines the policies and sets the strategic direction for the college.

"I was at Alta View Hospital for two years as a nursing administrator, and this job feels like coming home again. My focus will be on building relationships with the staff, physicians and the community, maintaining our excellent standards of patient care and helping Alta View continue to be a wonderful resource for the community." — Becky Kapp

"The widespread adoption of many new media platforms and emerging technologies has created many challenges and opportunities for the radio and television broadcasting industry. I'm excited to have the opportunity to help our company navigate through these challenges and opportunities during this pivotal point in time. It's my goal to make sure that we are serving our communities with valuable news, information, music and entertainment, regardless of whether it is on the Web, on mobile devices or on any new media platform." — Russell Banz