

ROBERT J. CARDON has been elected vice president of administration for Dynatronics Corporation. He also will continue to hold the positions of corporate secretary and treasurer. Cardon has been with the company for more than 18 years in investor relations, human resources and other capacities.

Four nationally recognized coding specialists have joined the management team of the American Academy of Professional Coders, an education and credentialing association for medical coders. SHERI POE BERNARD has been named vice president of member relations, BARBARA J. COBUZZI as director of outreach programs, STEPHANIE JONES as vice president of member services and NANCY READING as director of educational services.

LANE BEATTIE, president and CEO of the Salt Lake Chamber of Commerce, has received the 2007 Distinguished Utah Award from the Salt Lake City chapter of the BYU Management Society. Beattie served as a state Olympic officer and spent 12 years as a state legislator before joining the chamber.

BSD Medical Corporation appointed DENNIS P. GAUGER as CFO and principal accounting officer. Gauger worked as a certified public accountant in several private and public companies, including 11 years with Deloitte & Touche, LLP. He will be responsible for certifying the company's filings with the U.S. Securities & Exchange Commission.

TERA SUNDER, chief people officer for Café Rio restaurant chain, has been awarded the Motivator of the Year award from the Elliot Group. Sunder has more than 30 years of experience in the restaurant industry, 15 of them in human resources. She is also active with the Multi-Cultural Foodservice and Hospitality Alliance and the Women's Food Service Forum.

GARY HARTER has been named a director of the Governors Office of Economic Development. Harter is the former commander of the U.S. Army Dugway Proving Ground, heading 1,500 military and civilian workers. For the last two years, he served as the director of the Defense and Homeland Security program for the GOED.

Newways Inc. has appointed LES BROWN as CFO. Brown joins the company with nearly 20 years of experience in accounting. Previously, he was the senior vice president of finance and CFO of Nutraceutical International Corporation, directing a team of more than 70 employees.

TERESA DOZIER joins R&O Construction as the human resource director. Dozier will be responsible for expanding the department and managing and training all employees. She brings more than 11 years of experience in human resources.

Nutraceutical International Corporation has promoted two senior finance managers. CORY J. MCQUEEN has been named vice president and CFO and ANDREW SEELOS has been appointed to assistant vice president and controller.

PETER WOODMAN has been promoted to director of customer relationship management for Spring Communications, a retailer of wireless products. Most recently, Woodman was the database marketing manager for Spring and has also worked with Mattel Toys and Franklin Covey.

Power Innovations International has announced TED BECKHAM as the new vice president of sales. Beckham brings 20 years of sales experience and will be leading the sales team and developing new selling strategies. Previously, Beckham worked in Power Innovation's Houston office as a sales representative.

Alliance Inc. has added three members to its executive staff. J.D. JEPSON has been appointed vice president of sales; TERENCE FUGAZZI has been named vice president of demand marketing and CHRIS COTTLE has been selected as vice president of corporate marketing.

DAVID JONES has been appointed as senior director of early translational research for the Huntsman Cancer Institute. He will oversee the development of laboratory discoveries into actual treatments for patients. Jones is an associate professor in the department of oncological sciences at the University of Utah and has worked in the pharmaceutical industry.

MIKE VAN THIEL has been promoted to CTO of Vehix, an automotive portal. He has more than 15 years of experience in the automotive, health care and mortgage and title markets. Prior to joining Vehix, van Thiel was the director of development at Xi Corporation, where he built a political intelligence system used in the 2004 election cycle.

CB Richard Ellis has appointed BRENDA DUTSON as lead broker of office properties for the Utah County office. Dutson comes from the Salt Lake City office, where she served as vice president. She has spent more than 26 years in the Utah commercial real estate market.

MICHAEL EDWARDS has been appointed regional director of finance and accounting for Fieldstone Homes Utah, LLC. In this position, Edwards will be responsible for financial reporting and analyzing the division's performance. Previously, Edwards served as controller for BioNumerik Pharmaceuticals, Inc.

ART COLEY has been selected by Alphagraphics Inc., a visual communications franchisor, as senior director of franchise development. He will head the company's expansion plan to grow the company's network to more than 500 locations. Coley served as president of Computer Explorers, growing the business from 58 to 105 locations. He is a Certified Franchise Executive.

Raser Technologies appointed RICHARD D. CLAYTON as general counsel and secretary. Clayton comes to Raser as a partner in Holland and Hart, LLP. His private practice dealt with corporate finance, mergers and acquisitions and energy and resources law.

MATT MOSMAN has joined MediConnect Global, Inc., which specializes in digitized medical records, as CFO. Mosman brings more than 15 years of experience in the technology and Internet sectors as well as extensive time in financial management. He also served as senior vice president of corporate development at Oracle Corporation.

JOE BANOS has been named COO of Wilson Electronics Inc., a manufacturer of cellular amplifiers and antennas. Banos' experience in the wireless communication and technology industry extends 30 years. He will be responsible for overseeing Wilson's day-to-day operations and directing strategic growth.

Mountain Reservations, formerly OTravel.com, had made significant changes to its executive team. JULIAN CASTELLI will serve as CEO and president, GEORGE TREVINO will be the CFO. TOM RAUDORF has been promoted to COO and CINDY NUQUI moves to vice president of customer care.

O'Curran Teleservices has announced changes within its senior management team. DAVID MEINE has been named CEO, LAURA SUMMERS has been selected as director of operations and JAY FRAGA has been chosen as director of training.

"I am excited to join Raser and be part of the drive for success. I believe the company is well positioned to become a leader in geothermal power production with its capable team and rights to innovated binary technology. Raser's high performance electric motor and controller technologies also hold exciting opportunities for the company in the transportation, industrial and power generation sectors." —Richard D. Clayton

"MediConnect is a solid worldwide organization with innovative technology, a broad customer base, a passionate team of professionals and a pipeline of new products for 2007 and beyond. It's a privilege to be joining the company, and I look forward to helping MediConnect achieve its tremendous market potential as we continue to grow the company worldwide." —Matt Mosman

Brenda Dutson

Gary Harter

David Jones

Ted Beckham